Milaidhoo Maldives, 4 November 2026 - Milaidhoo Maldives is delighted to announce that its overwater Serenity Spa has been awarded the 2027 Condé Nast Johansens Award for Excellence for Best Hotel Spa, recognising its commitment to personalised wellbeing and exceptional spa experiences.
The award ceremony took place at The Montcalm Mayfair, London, on Monday 2 November 2026. Milaidhoo was represented by Georgie Westley, Corporate Director of Marketing and Communications at Versa Hospitality, together with the ROVE PR UK team.
Surrounded by the turquoise waters of the Baa Atoll, a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve, the Serenity Spa offers a peaceful setting in which to relax and recharge. With an on-island wellbeing consultant, daily yoga classes and an extensive treatment menu, the spa takes a personalised approach to wellbeing, helping each guest find the experiences best suited to their needs.
Treatments can be enjoyed in the overwater spa or in the comfort and privacy of guests' own villas. The menu ranges from restorative massages and beauty rituals to more advanced treatments incorporating innovative technologies.
